

ECSA

ECSA Marseille PROGRAMME

April 26-28, 2024 | Friche de la Belle de Mai

Collective action against the rise of the extreme right in Europe

26 April | 13:30-15:30 h | EN-FR
Auditorium (La Friche)

Presentation of our scope and modes of action - Elements of convergence in the fight against the extreme right: unity, actions in the field, training, information, publishing, etc. Follow-up and contribution of the ECSA movement.

Organised by: CADTM-Fondation Copernic-VISA

Resisting the criminalisation of social movements: a key challenge

26 April | 15:30-17:30 h | FR
Auditorium (La Friche)

Whether in the world of work, social justice, ecology, those in power punish any challenge to the neo-liberal order. In this context, it is vital that social movements discuss this political attack and build strategies of resistance.

Organised by: Attac, LDH, SAF, SM, CGT et FSU en plus d'observatoires des pratiques policières et des libertés publiques

PLENARY - Emancipation & Solidarity (Container 2)

26 April | 17:30-19:30 h | EN-FR
Auditorium (La Friche)

The plenary will tackle intersectional resistance to the capitalist, colonial and militarised system of exploitation and violence against marginalised populations. Antiracist, feminist and anti-colonial struggles intersect in local and international solidarity struggles for emancipation.

Organised by: ECSA

United we win. Struggling together for equal rights

26 April | 14:00-16:00 h | EN-FR
Geste (La Friche)

The workshop will tackle the protagonism of people on the move and migrant persons and the role of alliances. It will open strategic exchanges and discussion on how to strengthen intersectional alliances and solidarity from local to transnational level to reinforce struggles for justice and rights.

Organised by: TNI, CRID, CADTM, transform!europe

Screening - Banlieue

26 April | 16:00-18:00 h | FR
Geste (La Friche)

What does it mean to be European in a working-class neighbourhood? Far from the white-collar jobs in the European institutions, from Bobigny to Athens, not to mention Brussels, Barcelona and Bratislava, Banlieue tells the story of what these very different Europeans have in common.

Organised by: Waël Sghaier

What are the solutions for living in a post-capitalism world?

26 April | 11:00-13:00 h | EN
La Ruche #1

A workshop with expert associations to think about how to live in a post-capitalism world. How can we think about energy, renovation, sanitation and living together? What can we imagine together to live in a safe and just way?

Organised by: La Ruche Marseille et Inter-Made (Concrétisons l'Utopie), Voisins Malins, Enercoop, Energie Partagée, Réseau d'assainissement écologique PACA, Enrhy, Habitat participatif France

Build and collectively resist the attack on public services

26 April | 14:00-16:00 h | ES
La Ruche #1

A workshop focusing on building collective resistance against attacks on public services.

Organised by: Confederación Intersindical

How can we come together in a common agenda for structural change?

26 April | 14:00-16:00 h | EN-FR
La Ruche #2

This is a workshop for learning from successes and failures in movement building. We will map our connections, identify possibilities for connection and merging of agendas, identify problems often encountered working in coalitions and share solutions.

Organised by: Climate Action Network; European Alternatives; Agora des Habitants de la Terre

Fighting sexism within our activist organisations

26 April | 16:30-18:00 h | EN-FR
La Ruche #2

Sharing how we fight sexism within our organisations and coming up with tools to help us fight further.

Organised by: FSU

Manifesto for joyous political organisations: a theatrical conference by Florence Poznanski

26 April | 10:30-12:00 h | FR
Le Couvent

Florence Poznanski, an activist, will present a theatrical conference discussing why some leftist political organisations may not always apply the values and practices outlined in their political platform.

Organised by: Florence Poznanski, independent suggestion

Handbreak to Stop Climate Collapse

26 April | 15:00-17:00 h | EN
Manufacture - La Friche

"Handbrake to stop climate collapse" aims beyond campaigning, proposing a theory of change for systemic climate action. Explore transformative strategies, missing elements, and movement capacities in this 2-hour session.

Organised by: Climáximo

Fighting extractivism for an alterglobalist ecological transition

26 April | 17:00-18:30 h | FR
Manufacture - La Friche

Testimonies of struggles against extractivism: DRC, Indonesia, Latin America, France. Development of an action campaign in Europe against extractivism. Alternatives leading to a radical change in society towards greater sobriety.

Organised by: Génération Lumière; ATTAC FRANCE

Barbie in the factory: exploitation and fake feminism

26 April | 14:00-15:00 h | FR
Manufacture - La Friche

For twenty years, ActionAid France and China Labor Watch have been conducting undercover investigations in the Chinese factories of the Mattel brand that produces Barbie dolls. Can we talk about feminist Barbies when exploitation is the system in the factories? We don't think so.

Organised by: ActionAid France

Roma Inclusion in EU 27 Curricula - the Marseilles Manifesto

26 April | 11:00-13:00 h | EN
Massalia Vox #1

Calling all allies and advocates for social justice! Join us in a groundbreaking initiative to revolutionize education across the EU by amplifying the voices and experiences of Roma communities.

Organised by: World Roma Federation

Big pharma, what alternatives to the market to make common goods?

26 April | 14:00-16:00 h | FR
Massilia Vox #1

High prices, shortages, the South deprived of treatment, health scandals. The alternative? Transparency, lower prices, compulsory licensing, lifting of patents, public production.

Organised by: Notre santé en danger

Social security and our health threatened by financialization

26 April | 16:00-18:00 h | FR
MassiliaVox #1

Faced with the liberal offensive and financialization, defend solidarity systems, with Nicolas Da Silva, author of La bataille de la Sécu.

Organised by: Notre santé en danger

 La Friche: 41 Rue Jobin, 13003 Marseille, France

Massalia Vox: 15 boulevard de la liberté, angle, 20 Rue Lafayette, 13003 Marseille, France

Feminist pathways to peace-finding a common language on care

26 April | 13:30-15:30 h | EN-FR
La Ruche #1

Looking back: my fears, problems, experiences with anti-war and peace activities – what worked, failed, why? / Looking at present: experiences with demonization of peace and pacifisms / Looking forward: Transfer experiences into a feminist caring context.

Organised by: WILPF- Women's International League for Peace and Freedom; International Center for civil initiatives "Our House"

Corporate Capture in EU decision making, zooming in on Big Tech

26 April | 14:00-15:30 h | EN
Massalia Vox #2

We will show how corporate capture has stood in the way of the public good and has influenced and even steered decision-making processes at the EU level, with a focus on Big Tech.

Organised by: Corporate Europe Observatory (CEO)

Feminism against extreme right-wing discourse and practices in several European countries

26 April | 11:30-13:00 h | EN-FR
Quai (La Friche)

An exchange between women activists to discuss differences, to develop gender-sensitive cultural practices and political work.

Organised by: Women*s Action Forum (WAF, Austria), supported by AEC (France)

Experience of solidarity with peoples at war - Ukraine

26 April | 14:00-15:30 h | EN-FR
Quai (La Friche)

Exchanges of experience on solidarity practices in recent years with groups and movements in war-torn societies, in Ukraine, and anti-war movements in Russia.

Organised by: AEC, IPAM, ENSU-European network of solidarity with Ukraine, Another Europe Is Possible

 La Friche: 41 Rue Jobin, 13003 Marseille, France

La Ruche: 28 boulevard National, 13001 Marseille, France

Massalia Vox: 15 boulevard de la liberté, angle, 20 Rue Lafayette, 13003 Marseille, France

Struggles for Food Sovereignty and farmers protests across Europe

27 April | 13:00-15:00 h | EN-FR
Quai (La Friche)

Following the farmers' protest, how can Europe move away from productivism, pesticides, exploitation of resources, farmers and workers in the food system, together with citizens?

Organised by: European coordination of the Via Campesina

Jobs, work and the eco-social transition

26 April | 17:30-19:30 h | EN-FR-ES
Quai (La Friche)

The climate crisis will have consequences on labor and employment. We want to build a space focused on analyzing the role of trade unions and the working class to address this emergency and the necessary eco-social transition.

Organised by: Confederación Intersindical; ELA Euskal sindikatua, Alter Summit

Socialisation of AI and the Challenge Digital Capitalism

26 April | 11:00-13:00 h | EN
Solidaires #1

AI drives digital capitalism, aiding multinationals in worker exploitation. Yet, it also holds potential to empower common people. Socializing AI and platforms might offer solutions. How can we harness these technologies to enhance lives and promote equity?

Organised by: transform europe & Institut La Boétie

People's Planning – the need for a democratically planned economy

26 April | 14:00-16:30 h | EN
Solidaires #1

Capitalism breached 6 planetary boundaries. Free Market fails future challenges. Integrate market into society, democratize planning at all levels. How to structure a democratically planned economy? Leverage digital tools, empower workers, unions in decision-making.

Organised by: transform europe & Institut La Boétie

Open Strategy Meeting of members of the Global Campaign to Reclaim People's Sovereignty, Dismantle Corporate Power and Stop Impunity

26 April | 09:00-11:00 h | EN-FR
Solidaires #2

This meeting aims to understand and build upon the struggles and horizons European Global Campaign members and ECSA comrades put forward so that we enhance coordination and solidarity in a context that urgently demands collective action.

Organised by: TNI, FIAN, CETIM

Ending the Fossil Fuel Era

26 April | 11:30-13:00 h | EN-FR
Solidaires #2

To avert climate catastrophe, we need to confront the power of the fossil fuel industry. We will discuss how we rid politics of fossil fuel influence, fight new coal, oil and gas, and build towards a Fossil Fuel Treaty for a global just transition.

Organised by: Corporate Europe Observatory, l'Observatoire des Multinationales, les Amis de la Terre, Global Justice Now, European Attac Network, Fossil Fuel NonProliferation Treaty Initiative

Less Talk More Emergency: United for Climate Justice

26 April | 14:00-16:00 h | EN
Solidaires #2

We need to act like the Climate Emergency we are in. Come to this workshop to know how the European platform United for Climate Justice approaches the urgent need for systemic change. Let's build alliances based on action and start fighting united.

Organised by: United for Climate Justice

The necessity of an independent media

26 April | 16:00-17:30 h | FR
Solidaires #2

Independent journalism is being subjected to multiple attacks launched by powerful economic and political interests. How do we fight the vested interests that have a huge influence on so much media?

Organised by: Politis, Fonds Pour la Presse Libre Mediapart (FPL)

How can we achieve new victories for an effective right to housing?

26 April | 10:00-13:00 h | EN-FR-ES
Tabac (La Friche)

Neoliberal policies have made it difficult to access decent housing. Building on the richness of our mobilizations, we will envisage a European convergence. A roundtable, a semi-open forum to meet, question and provide answers.

Organised by: LDH-Confederación Intersindical

Supporting citizens to participate fully in the construction of the European common space

26 April | 14:30-15:30 h | EN-FR-IT
Tabac (La Friche)

Inform participants on the functioning of the European Union, the mechanisms that exist for citizens to be heard and tools that can be put in place locally.

Organised by: EuropAnous

Earth Social Conference: Should we boycott the COP?

26 April | 15:30-17:00 h | EN-FR
Tabac (La Friche)

Let's debate! Some of our speakers will critique the effectiveness of COP, proposing a boycott and to meet during the Earth Social Conference in Mexico for build a true change. Others will argue that civil society's active participation in COP can drive progress. So COP or not COP?

Organised by: ATTAC France, Climáximo

Presentation of the book Leur Europe et la nôtre (Their Europe and Our's) Textuel, Paris, 05/2024

26 April | 17:00-18:30 h | FR
Tabac (La Friche)

This book, produced by the Copernicus Foundation and ATTAC France, provides keys to understanding the development of the European Union, which is currently at a crossroad between a headlong neoliberal rush or an ecological, social and democratic alternative.

Organised by: ATTAC France & Fondation Copernic

European complicity with Israel's genocide / Solidarity with Palestine

27 April | 09:00-11:00 h | EN-FR-ES
Auditorium (La Friche)

In this workshop, we will highlight that Israel's genocide is dependent on the support of not only the US but also many countries in Europe, including France, the UK, Germany, Italy, and the Netherlands.

Organised by: TNI-Transnational Institute, ARCI - Associazione Ricreativa Culturale Italiana, Palestinian Youth Movement, BDS France and Al Haq, with speakers from the French Jewish Union for Peace, MAGPAL Marseille Gaza Palestine, and Palestina Spricht/Palestine Speaks

PLENARY - Power to the People (Container 3)

26 April | 11:30-13:30 h | EN-FR
Auditorium (La Friche)

The perspective of a real democracy is not only a historical, social and political exigence but also a necessary condition to defeat authoritarianism and the Far-right forces that are rising across Europe and the Globe.

Organised by: ECSA

PLENARY - There is no Planet B (Container 1)

27 April | 14:30-16:30 h | EN-FR
Auditorium (La Friche)

This plenary explores Europe's role in the nexus climate/extractivism and militarism, discussing strategies to collectively dismantle fossil capitalism, colonialism, and countering far-right agendas on war and climate change.

Organised by: ECSA

PLENARY- Struggle and Win Together (Container 4)

27 April | 17:00-19:00 h | EN-FR
Auditorium (La Friche)

In this plenary, we will present and discuss key lessons from previous attempts at building strong movements and organizing common mobilisations across national borders. We will also go over key political moments for future Europe-wide mobilisations in 2024 and 2025.

Organised by: ECSA

Jazz concert -swing, funk, latin by La Jam du Cours

27 April | 19:00-21:00 h
Auditorium (La Friche)

Towards Climate and Social Justice: Feminist and International Solidarity initiatives

27 April | 13:00-15:00 h | EN-FR
La Base #1

Discussions on feminist climate justice issues, based on presentations of mobilizations, educational tools and initiatives in Europe and Africa. Topics covered: impact of banking investments, ecofeminism, agroecology.

Organised by: Adéquations; Action Aid France; CCFD-Terre Solidaire (Féministes pour des Alternatives Climat Environnement)

Aviation and climate justice

27 April | 10:30-12:30 h
La Base #1

Exploring the impact of aviation, the narratives of the industry, and how to counter it.

Organised by: Stay Grounded

Transformative local actions - changing Europe from below

27 April | 15:30-17:30 h | EN-FR
La Base #1

Across Europe, activist movements are promoting alternatives and working for radical social-ecological transformation on the city level. This workshop will present some of these movements and explore deeper European level cooperation.

Organised by: : CEO / TNI / réinventer la gauche

Europe of Capital and Militarism

27 April | 18:00-20:00 h | EN-FR
La Base #1

We will collectively analyze EU's servitude to big business, militarization, return to austerity, and neocolonial agendas to build the Europe we want and expose the Europe against which we must fight.

Organised by: CEO, TNI, Transform, ARCI, Alter-Summit, FIAN

Syndicalist struggles to confront the Europe of capital

27 April | 10:30-12:30 h | EN-FR-ES
La Base #2

In this workshop we will discuss workplace struggles and mobilisations as a tool of confrontation with Europe's capital.

Organised by: Alter Summit, Corporate Europe Observatory, Transnational Institute, ELA, CGT, Alliance écologique et sociale

Veganism is feminism - why progressive movements should end all oppression

27 April | 09:30-10:30 h | EN
La Base #2

How do the plights of women and animals align? Is their objectification similar? Explore violence's interconnectedness. Examine language's role in belittling harm. Uncover shared goals, values, and adversaries of feminist and animal rights movements. This workshop advocates for a progressive movement against all oppression, human and nonhuman.

Organised by: Akcja Demokracja

Screening - Cries tear through the silence, and debate with the Director Natacha Thiéry

27 April | 13:30-15:30 h | FR
La Base #2

An unprecedented activism unfolds on the walls through collages with an identical graphic code, captured in four years of feminist and anti-fascist struggles (end 2019 to end 2023). Cries of revolt against patriarchy, they are changing public spaces and subjectivities on sight.

Organised by: Attac France

Mobilizing for a united Europe: sharing ready to use animation tools

27 April | 15:30-17:30 h | EN-FR
La Base #3

Discover Europe through its major challenges: pesticides, migration, and tax evasion. This workshop gives you the tools and knowledge to mobilize effectively and playfully for the European elections.

Organised by: CCFD Terre Solidaire

Marseille VS Wuambushu

27 April | 15:30-17:30 h | FR-AR
La Base #2

Screening of the film "Wuambushu and after?" by Guigui Jaffar (18min) followed by a discussion with Survie PACA and the Marseille VS Darmanin collective around the struggles of Marseille against the racist laws of the Minister of the Interior Darmanin.

Organised by: Survie PACA, Marseille VS DarmaninSA

From Proposals to Action: a 3-Taxes Campaign for a Fair and Progressive Tax System in Europe

27 April | 10:00-11:30 h | EN-FR-ES
La Base #3

In 2023, ATTAC Europe launched a proposal for a common European taxation. Now the time has come to take a step forward and launch a campaign to raise awareness of the European institutions and mobilise citizens in support of this project.

Organised by: European Attac Network (EAN) - Attac Spain, Attac France, Attac Italy, Attac Germany, Attac Wallonie-Bruxelles, Attac Finland, Attac Norway, Attac Austria

The BRICS+ and the New Development Bank: what are the alternatives?

27 April | 17:00-18:30 h | EN-FR
La Base #3

The BRICS, the New Development Bank, China... Are they an alternative to the World Bank, the IMF, the G7? What development model do they support?

Organised by: CADTM Belgium, FNSES Côte d'Ivoire, CADTM France, CADTM Espagne

International proposal for strategy and organization

27 April | 10:00-11:30 h | EN
La Ruche 1

Governments and corporations wage war against people and the planet. The climate crisis is their weapon of destruction. Although many are still in denial about this fact, the capitalist system threatens our lives, our planet, and our future. It's time to organize and strategize to stop this war on us.

Organised by: Climáximo

Beyond Europe - Working with civil spaces across continents

27 April | 13:30-15:00 h | EN
La Ruche #1

The World Social Forum, The Asia Europe People Forum, The Norwegian Social Forum are only a few of the Forum processes active today. We will in this workshop discuss how those spaces could be effective building solidarity across continents.

Organised by: AEPF, ATTAC France & Germany, Norwegian Social Forum, RIPESS, Transform!Europe

How to develop shared and solidarity-based mobilities?

27 April | 11:30-12:30 h | EN-FR
La Ruche #1

This workshop will present existing dynamic and local examples of shared and solidarity-based mobilities and reflect on how these can be developed in the actual regulatory and political context.

Organised by: Mobicoop

Breaking with advocacy in silos: the corporate multistakeholder strategy and tomorrow's international solidarity

27 April | 10:00-11:30 h | EN-FR
La Ruche #2

How can we break with advocacy in silos by creating converging advocacy processes for a global social and environmental agenda based on gender equality and social claims in favor of youth and the working people?

Organised by: Rosa-Luxemburg-Stiftung (Geneva Office), Engagé·e·s et Déterminé·e·s, and CETIM

Screening: "The 18 fugitives", Amer Shomali

27 April | 13:30-15:30 h | EN
La Ruche #2

The "18 Fugitives" recounts an astonishing historical event: the hunt for a herd of eighteen cows declared public enemy number one by the Israeli army.

Organised by: Festival Ciné-Palestine

Dreamers in space: What is Utopia

27 April | 15:30-17:00 h | FR
La Ruche #2

We consider 'Utopia' as a force for imagining the world we want to live in. We can use tools, methodologies, and approaches that enable us to think about the future in a way that encourages optimism and hope instead of fear and anxiety. This workshop utilizes physical theater and movement to explore themes of utopia from a 'visionary futures' perspective.

Organised by: Asociacion Litu

Narcotics, from security policy to prison: The impact of the drug prohibition act on rights and incarceration

27 April | 17:00-18:30 h | EN-FR
La Ruche #2

From drug policies to the excessive use of imprisonment. Against authoritarianism, the effects of a discriminatory and deleterious policy, and for a change of approach.

Organised by: Ligue des droits de l'Homme - France (LDH), Attac (Rhône), Prison Insider

Belarusian conscientious objectors

27 April | 10:30-12:00 h | EN
Le Couvent

In this workshop, we'll learn about the challenges of Belarusian conscientious objectors, caught 'between two fires'. Because they struggle for the right to abstain from military service, they face criminal prosecution in Belarus. In the EU, they struggle to obtain legal status, and they're not recognized as political refugees.

Organised by: International Center for civil initiatives "Our House"

Pact for Equality: Empowering Muslims, Migrants & Minoritised Groups

27 April | 13:00-15:30 h | EN-FR
Le Couvent

Why do people move? How do we empower communities, regardless of citizenship status, to fight for equal societies? What are the colonial and economic structures causing injustice for minoritised communities? A migrant and wom*n-led workshop.

Organised by: CADTM, AEIP, European Alternatives, ASF, Solidaires, MRN, GJN, AEC

(De)colonisation through memory and action

27 April | 17:30-20:30 h | EN-FR-ES
Massalia vox #1

Colonization continues and must be re-inserted into Europe's collective memory. Decolonisation, as an ongoing process, is urgent. In this workshop, we explore initiatives such as a Memorial day for victims of colonisation.

Organised by: Un pont Per - Decolonial Europe Day & the Decolonial Europe Collective

Who will finance water in the years to come?

27 April | 15:30-18:30 h | EN-FR-IT
Le Couvent

This workshop addresses root causes of water scarcity - both in quantity and quality - advocating for public investment to ensure universal accessibility over profit-driven agendas. Economic exploitation and social inequalities linked to private interests deprive the planet of water. We must defend the universal right to water as a common good for all Earth's inhabitants.

Organised by: Agora des Habitants de la Terre / Coordination Eau Ile de France

Political action through alternative and solidarity economy

27 April | 13:00-14:30 h | EN-FR-IT
La Base #3

We will propose an approach under the two terms 'politics' and 'policies' and discuss the differences between 'transition' and 'bifurcation'. We'll look at the complementarities between struggles to oppose the capitalist system and the dynamics of building concrete alternatives.

Organised by: RIPESS Europe - Solidarity Economy Europe

 Le Couvent: 52 Rue Levat, 13003 Marseille, France

La Base: 3 Rue Pierre Roche, 13004 Marseille, France

Massilia Vox: 15 boulevard de la liberté, angle, 20 Rue Lafayette, 13001 Marseille, France

Commons, commoning and transformative economy practices: how to network at the European level?

27 April | 15:00-17:30 h | EN-FR-IT
Massalia Vox #1

Shared resources, learning to live together, and concrete political practices for autonomous livelihoods: together, these three dimensions contribute to the emergence of the 'commoner' as a political subject

Organised by: RIPESS

What does Winning mean these days? Looking back and beyond the success against the European Gas Conference

27 April | 16:00-18:00 h | EN
Massalia Vox #2

Let's discuss the success of a new alliance of grassroots stopping highlevel gas CEOs, financiers, and politicians coming together for the European Gas Conference in Vienna. Can this new approach of internationalism, direct action, and organizing help us win?

Organised by: Attac Austria

Screening debate on Mediterranean crossings

27 April | 10:30-12:30 h
Massilia Vox #2

Screening debate on Mediterranean crossings

Organised by: SOS
MEDITERRANEE

A comic book to address the questions of migration and freedom of movement

27 April | 18:00-19:30 h | FR
Massalia Vox #2

Based on drawings taken from the comic strip 'en vie' exhibited in the Massalia Vox space, exchange on the issues of migration and freedom of movement. Comics for children to discuss the subject with them.

Organised by: SOS
MEDITERRANEE, Mouvement
Utopia

For a popular ecology from below

27 April | 09:30-12:00 h | EN-FR-ES
Quai (La Friche)

Confronted by an anti-social transition imposed by multinationals and the rise of an ecology driven by the far right, our task is to build a popular ecology from below on the left. We'll discuss this challenge with grassroots social movements.

Organised by: Alter Summit, Corporate Europe Observatory, Transnational Institute, ELA, Confederación Intersindical

For a popular ecology from below

27 April | 16:00-18:30 h | EN-FR-ES
Quai (La Friche)

Confronted by an anti-social transition imposed by multinationals and the rise of an ecology driven by the far right, our task is to build a popular ecology from below on the left. We'll discuss this challenge with grassroots social movements.

Organised by: Alter Summit, Corporate Europe Observatory, Transnational Institute, ELA, Confederación Intersindical

Free trade, geopolitics, agriculture: Where is globalization heading?

26 April | 15:30-17:30 h | EN-FR
Quai (La Friche)

This workshop will expose the current problems with free trade agreements and the WTO, including agriculture and climate. It will draw up proposals and actions to demand a different trade model that benefits people and the planet, not transnational corporations and agribusiness.

Organised by: European Trade Justice Coalition (Attac, European Coordination Via Campesina, Friends of the Earth, Power Shift, Climate Action Network, Global Justice Now, TNI

Climate change and ecological debt: Situation and challenges

27 April | 10:00-12:30 h | FR
Solidaires #1

Greenhouse effect and the role of human-caused greenhouse gases in contemporary climate change, IPCC scenarios, trends and projections. What is ecological debt? What are the impacts of debt on climate change?

Organised by: CADTM International, Debt for climate, ATTAC France, Ecologiste

Fighting economic neo-colonialism

27 April | 14:00-16:00 h | FR
Solidaires #1

The tools of economic domination, such as land grabbing, debt and free trade, are numerous and allow multinationals to continue to exploit people and wealth. Where does neo-colonialism stand today? How to deal with it?

Organised by: CADTM International, Survie 13, bilaterals.org

The right to say NO

27 April | 16:00-17:00 h | EN
Solidaires #1

The workshop will consist of two parts: 1. Theoretical presentation of the toolbox, explanation of the concept of the "right to say no" (RTSN), legislation related to RTSN, and successful cases. 2. Practical tasks for learning how to use the toolbox.

Organised by: Catapa.vzw

Can nuclear power and State lies be separated?

27 April | 17:30-19:30 h | EN-FR
La Base #2

Film and debate: A discussion on the film "Invisible Fallout" on the Fukushima catastrophe, animated by R. Desbordes from the French organisation CRIIRAD which monitors nuclear issues. He will show the importance of citizens' counter power to compare official discourse with scientific data.

Organised by: Alternatiba Marseille, Criirad

To return to the ecological space, we need degrowth

27 April | 09:00-11:00 h | FR
Solidaires #2

Ecological space is a matrix of political solutions to outline a path of degrowth towards sustainable societies. The power of this concept is that it is applicable to all fields: come and make it your own and reflect on the political uses of this notion.

Organised by: Maison commune de la décroissance

Food as an aspect of social security and access to quality food for all

27 April | 10:00-12:30 h | FR
Solidaires #2

An exchange between European stakeholders on food accessibility initiatives at different levels and a discussion of the common food fund project in Marseille as a local initiative for social food security.

Organised by: : COMAC (Collectif Marseillais d'Alimentation et des Communs)

Knowledge-sharing for Transformation: from interaction to action in education

27 April | 14:00-16:00 h | EN-FR-ES
Solidaires #2

Impact - What are the impacts of neoliberal capitalism on education and research in Europe? Experiences - What are some shared experiences of resistance from which we can learn? Alternatives - How can we construct a dialogue between formal & non-formal spaces of knowledge?

Organised by: Attac France, FSU, European Alternatives, Confederación de STEs, CNAJEP

Resisting all imperialisms in the 21st Century

27 April | 17:00-19:00 h | EN-FR
Solidaires #2

In a moment of heightened war, genocide and conflict from Palestine, Sudan, China, and the Congo to Ukraine, what can we do to dismantle imperialism and authoritarianism, connect struggles and build a democratic politics of solidarity across borders?

Organised by: Another Europe Is Possible, Global Justice Now, European Alternatives, Union Syndicale Solidaires, Europe Solidaires Sans Frontieres, Decolonial Europe Day

Workshop to build local demands collectively

27 April | 10:00-11:30 h | FR
Tabac (La Friche)

Workshop to craft local demands for Alternatiba Tour 2024 in Marseille (Oct 4-6). Aiming to unite actors, showcase eco-social initiatives, and enact transformative actions across the territory, building concrete alternatives.

Organised by: Alternatiba Marseille/ Marseille en transition

Emancipation is a Woman's Name" Dibett Quintana and the repression of women unionists in Colombia

27 April | 12:00-13:30 h | FR-ES
Tabac (La Friche)

Dibett is a trade unionist with the USO (oil sector union, CUT Colombia). She will be present to talk about her struggle against patriarchy, employers and the paramilitaries, and the importance of international solidarity

Organised by: CGT / France et CC.OO / Espagne

Massilia Sun System

27 April | 14:00-16:00 h | FR
Tabac (La Friche)

An interactive quiz, visits to the photovoltaic plant on the roof of the Cartonnerie and a moment of celebration with the unveiling of the plant's production display.

Organised by: Massilia Sun System

World Network of Antifascist Unions

27 April | 17:00-19:00 h
Tabac (La Friche)

In 2022, dozens of trade union organisations from all over the world signed a manifesto launching the network. The network is based on two pillars: analysis, research and concrete actions of mutual solidarity.

Organised by: CGT / France, CGIL / Italie et CC.OO / Espagne

Games as a space for dialogue and the construction of alternatives

28 April | 09:00-09:30 h | FR
Quai (La Friche)

Play Opinion and/or Dialog: edutainment tools for democratic dialogue and critical thinking.

Organised by: Eclore / MassiliaVOx

OTHER ACTIVITIES

Demonstration on the Olympic Games:
"Les JO: cheval de troie du capitalisme"

27 April | EN-FR | OUTSIDE

Organised by: NO JO 2030, XR, Comités locaux Soulèvements de la Terre, Attac, Greenpeace

Walk around the city to check accessibility for bikes, people, etc

27 April | FR | OUTSIDE

Organised by: MarsMob

Cooking collectively

26-28 April | EN-FR-AR
Coursive du Quai

Organised by: Le Bouillon de Noailles